Annual Subscription Rates 1986 (including postage and insurance)

For libraries, research establishments and all other multiple-reader institutions; combined subscriptions; 1-yr $1770.00; 2-yr $3363.00. Part A, Comparative Physiology $760.00; Part B, Comparative Biochemistry $760.00; Part C, Comparative Pharmacology and Toxicology $450.00 (2-yr subscription rates: Part A $1444.00, Part B $1444.00, Part C $855.00).

Specially Reduced Rates to Individuals

In the interests of maximizing the dissemination of the research results published in this important international journal we have established a two-tier price structure. Any individual whose institution takes out a library subscription may purchase a second or additional subscription for personal use at the much reduced rate of $160.00 per annum (combined subscription). Part A, Comparative Physiology $75: Part B, Comparative Biochemistry $75; Part C, Comparative Pharmacology and Toxicology $60. Parts A and B: Three volumes of each part per year, four issues per volume (Part A—1st of the month; Part B—15th of the month). Part C: Three volumes per year, two issues per volume (commencing Vol. 50, No. 1, 1975).

Microform Subscriptions and Back Issues

Back issues of all previously published volumes are available in the regular editions and on microfilm and microfiche. Current subscriptions are available on microfiche simultaneously with the paper edition and on microfilm on completion of the annual index at the end of the subscription year.

Reviews

Earl V. J. Stevens and David R. Husbands 1 Insulin-dependent production of low-molecular-weight compounds that modify key enzymes in metabolism

Mostafa N. Abdel-Halim and Samir I. Farah 9 Short-term regulation of acetyl CoA carboxylase: is the key enzyme in long-chain fatty acid synthesis regulated by an existing physiological mechanism?

S. N. Thompson 21 Metabolic integration during the host associations of multicellular animal endoparasites

General Papers

Muhammad A. Haseeb, Bernard Fried and L. K. Eveland 43 Schistosoma haematobium: neutral lipid composition and release by adults maintained in vitro

M. E. Letelier, Y. Repetto, J. Aldunate and A. Morello 47 Acid and alkaline phosphatase activity in Trypanosoma cruzi epimastigotes

Michael T. Clandinin, Katherine Wong and Roger R. Hacker 53 Synthesis of chain elongated–desaturated fatty acids from palmitic acid by liver and brain microsomes during the development of the pig

Hiroshi Inano, Aya Kikuchi and Bun-ichi Tamaoki 55 In vitro 16α-hydroxylation of progesterone by testes of crab-eating monkey (Macaca irus): a characteristic of primates?

J. Pearce and Liliana S. Piperova 59 A comparison of the effects of duodenal glucose infusion on carbohydrate and lipid metabolism in liver, adipose tissue and small intestinal mucosa in sheep

Ying Peng So, David R. Idler and Shinn Jia Hwang 63 Plasma vitellogenin in landlocked Atlantic salmon (Salmo salar Ouananiche): isolation, homologous radioimmunoassay and immunological cross-reactivity with vitellogenin from other teleosts

K. Jürss, T. Bittorf and Th. Vökler 73 Influence of salinity and ratio of lipid to protein in diets on certain enzyme activities in rainbow trout (Salmo gairdneri Richardson)

Gary H. Thorgaard and George D. Pearson 81 DNA homologies between the rainbow trout, chum salmon and coho salmon

John D. Belcher, Lawrence L. Rudel and Moseley Waite 87 Metabolism of radiolabelled chylomicron lipids in intact and hepatectomized rats

Amal A. Itani and Michael J. Arslanian 97 The short-term regulation of fatty acid synthesis in the rat epididymal adipocytes

Harry Koubi and Alain Fréminet 103 Comparison of glycogen stores in 3- and 7-month-old lean and obese Zucker rats under fed and fasted conditions

A. Dini, V. Piccialli, R. Pronzato and D. Sica 111 Sterol composition of marine sponges Stryphnus mucronatus and Reniera sarai

Donato Sica and Vincenzo Piccialli 115 A new C_{30} sterol, (24Z)-24-propylcholesta-5,7,24(28)-trien-3β-ol, and other $\Delta^{5,7}$ sterols from the sponge Spongionella gracilis

Information for Contributors

1. The journal will publish papers that contain the results of original research on the biochemistry, physiology and pharmacology of animals. Particular attention will be paid to those papers in which the subject is approached from a comparative point of view.

Part C of the journal deals with the study of the action of drugs and chemicals on cells, tissues and whole animals. In particular it is concerned with the differences between species, and organs, in their responses to drugs. The section will carry papers of interest to workers on insecticides, molluscides and antiprotozoan drugs.

In addition, basic research will be published on nerve muscle transmitters, nerve/nerve transmitters and other pharmacological studies on the simpler animals. Comparative biochemical and pharmacological studies will also be published.

2. English is the preferred language for papers.

3. Original communications should be sent to the Editor:

Professor G. A. KERKUT (Comparative Biochemistry and Physiology), Department of Physiology and Biochemistry, University of Southampton, Southampton SO9 3TU, UK.

4. Submission of a paper to the Editor will be held to imply that it has not previously been published: that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that if accepted for Comparative Biochemistry and Physiology it will not be published elsewhere in the same form, in English or in any other language, without the written consent of the Editor.

5. The typescript, in general, should follow the conventional form—introduction and literature, materials and methods, results, discussion, summary and references. The paper should be prefaced by an abstract appearing immediately after the title and the author's name. This abstract should consist of numbered sentences that summarize the main facts and conclusions of the paper. Not more than 100 words should be used, and 50 words are preferable.

6. Communications should be in the form of typescript, with the lines double spaced on one side of A4 paper (approx. 12 in. × 8 in.) and a left-hand margin of not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. The submission of two typescripts (an original and a carbon copy) will facilitate refereeing; if only one is submitted, it should be the original. In either case, the author should retain a copy for his own use.

7. Authors are requested to keep their communications as concise as possible. To conserve space, the author should indicate those parts of the paper that might be printed in small type. Footnotes should be avoided and italics should not be used for emphasis. A running head (shortened title at the top of each right-hand page of an article) of not more than 45 letters and spaces should be supplied for papers with long titles.

8. In general it is not necessary to publish all the individual results of replicated experiments. A statement of the number, their mean value, and some appropriate measure of their variability is usually sufficient. The methods of an analysis followed should be indicated, but statistical details such as tables of analysis of variance should be given only if they are relevant to the discussion. A statement that the difference between the mean value of two groups is statistically significant should include an indication of the level of significance attained.

9. In the interest of economy, and in order to avoid the introduction of errors, tables will be reproduced by photo-offset means directly from the authors' typed manuscript, and the following points should therefore be observed during their preparation:

(a) Tables should be prepared for direct camera copy. Refer to current tables in the journal, and arrange the spatial layout of your table to conform.

(b) Type should be clear and even.

(c) Tables, headings and legends should be typed on a separate sheet. Indicate on a Xerox copy of the table where the headings and the legends should be inserted.

(d) Insert heavy rules at the head and foot of each table, and fine rules below column headings.

(e) Leave the minimum space required to avoid confusion between columns.

(f) Genus and species names, and other words normally italicized, should be typed in italics or underlined.

For guidance on how best to prepare tables for photographic reproduction, and in case of difficulty, please contact the Photoreprographic Section of your institution who will give you assistance.

10. All necessary illustrations should accompany the typescript but should not be inserted in the text. All photographs, charts and diagrams are to be referred to as "Figs", and they should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are referred to in the text.

(a) Photographs, including photomicrographs, should be glossy prints and should be restricted to the minimum necessary. Each should have, lightly written on the back, the author's name, the figure number and an indication of which is the top of the picture. Lines or lettering to appear on the photographs should be in good quality stencil.

(b) Captions to figures should be typed consecutively on a separate page or pages at the end of the paper. The caption or legend should be sufficient so that the tables or figures are intelligible without reference to the text. The same data should not be published in tables and figures.

(c) Authors are requested not to submit sheets of illustrations larger than foolscap size.

(d) Authors should note that all illustrations, diagrams and graphs should have the FINAL labelling ready for Press.

11. The full Latin name of all animal species used in the investigation must be given.

12. Full references should be given at the end of the paper in alphabetical order and should include the names of the authors, the date of publication, the full title of the paper, title of the journal, volume number and the first and last page numbers. References to books should include the number of the edition, volume, relevant pagination, the name of the publisher and the town of publication. In the text a reference should be quoted by the author's name and the date placed in parentheses, as, for example: Smith (1960). Examples of full references are given below:

Ashby W. (1943) Carbonic anhydrase in mammalian issue. J. biol. Chem. 151, 521–527.

Kogh A., Warren B. and Holt C. (1977) Physiology of Capillaries, 2nd edn, Vol. 1, pp. 67–75. Pergamon Press, Oxford.

13. Abbreviations. Only standard abbreviations should be used. Where specialized terms are given, a specific abbreviation should be indicated as a footnote to the paper.

14. Page proofs will be sent to the author, or to the first-mentioned author in papers of multiple authorship, for correction. Reprints and copies of the issue (at a specially reduced rate) may be purchased using the order form which will accompany the proofs.

15. Corrections to the proofs must be restricted to printer's errors only. Other than those, substantial alterations may be charged to the author.

16. The original manuscript and diagrams will be discarded 1 month after publication unless the Publisher is requested to return original material to the author.
